I. L. Riefenider, a former citizen, now in the clothing business at Oswego, Kansas, is visiting his parents in this city.

Miss Ada Tolbert, teacher in the Second Ward school, is going to Wyoming, where the women vote and serve on juries.

Judge J. W. Jones, County Examiner has placed on our table the twentieth annual report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

President Grant, with his daughter Nellie, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon. After a brief interview with President McKeen, he passed on to St. Louis.

S. S. Early left for Baltimore yesterday morning. His return was hastened by a dispatch announcing the serious illness of his step-mother, Mrs.
Anna S. Early.

Gulick & Berry desire especial attention called just at this season of the year to their Railroad Colors, in six shades, which they have been selling for three years, and guarantee equal to the best white lead in the market.

The new divorce law of this State prohibits divorced parties from marrying again within two years, but provides no penalty therefore. So that provision is null. There is no law preventing people from buying Boots and Shoes at No. 10 South Fourth street, and the people go there for bargains.

Why does a photographer use a black cloth? To make his camera obscurer.
(obscura.) Go to Husher's Gallery, next door to the postoffice, see how he does, look at the specimens of his work adorning the walls, sit down and say "take me." Such a visit will please him, and you will be delighted with the result.

The possession or absence of a watch may furnish quite a clue to a man's character. Methodical, industrious and punctual people—those who divide up the day in a systematic manner, who keep their appointments to a minute, and who never get left by the train—always carry a watch, and, if they are posted, they buy it of Riddle, who keeps
